CLAIMS YOUNG BOYS ARE SOLD IN CHINA.

According to the North-China Herald, thousands of young Chinese boys are annually sold to families in the more prosperous sections of the country. The majority of the boys become farm laborers or workers in the great Chinese pottery factories.

Since, in most cases, the boys come from sections that have recently known hard times to more prosperous districts, the change usually works for the better. It is said that most of

ALLIES' VICTORY ALL HAWAIIAN MAN CAN SEE IN WAR

Letter From Somewhere in France Gives Opinion That in End Allies Will Win

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

HILO, Hawaii, June 30. — From "Somewhere in France" comes a letter, from James G. Mutch, once of Papakoa, and it is addressed to Manager John T. Moir. The communication bears no address but is headed "France."

Mutch is with the Royal Field Artillery and he writes in a cheerful mood. He declares that the Allies are sure of victory, and says that when the Germans could not break through in September, 1914, when they were at their best and fully prepared, while the Allies were unprepared, there is not a chance in the world of the Germans getting to Paris, Calais or any other place.

"We know that all is well now and that the arms and ammunition are in reserve. It is not a case of men having to go out armed with revolvers and wearing their regular civilian clothes now. The heroes who fought at Mons and the Marne are dead, but they saved Europe from the heel of the despot."

"When the real big attack comes and the steady pressure of the Allies on all sides becomes felt by the Germans there will be a sudden collapse. The Germans know this, and they fear the effect which will be created in Berlin. The long continued fight at Verdun is simply because the Germans dare not withdraw their troops and acknowledge to their own people, and the Turks and Bulgarians that they have shot their bolt. As long as they can keep up some sort of an offensive move at Verdun they can prolong the agony. But, with Russia coming in through the back door, there will have to be a change soon."

Mutch says that Bell, another man from Hawaii, has been in hospital with a bad attack of fever and had to undergo an operation for ear trouble.

Others who went from Hawaii to serve with the colors have not communicated with Mutch recently. However, he has reasons to believe that the men are all right. A brother, Alek, is also somewhere at the front but Mutch does not know where.

Mutch's brigade is still in action and he says that although the guns have been shifted about they are still in about the same region as they were some months ago.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF HOLUALOA SCHOOL WELL CARRIED OUT

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) KOHALA, June 30.—The closing exercises of the Holualoa public school took place Friday, June 23.

The graduating class (eighth grade) received their examinations from Honolulu and passed very creditably. The following program was admirably carried out:

Flag exercises. Addresses by Dr. Cowan of Kohala and Dr. Goodhue. Physical exercises. Recitation—Welcome to All, room IV.

Recitation—The Bell of Atri, room III. Exercise, Ten Little Maids, room I. Recitation, Be True, room II. Dialogue, Our Work, room IV.

Exercise, History Stories, room V. Song, Is There a Stranger, room III. Composition, Abraham Lincoln, room VI.

Recitation, The Flag, room III. Recitation, A Summer's Time, room I. Recitation, A Wise Little Mouse, room II.

Memory Verse, room VI. Recitation, Climbing the Hill, room III. Song, The Self Same Star, room III. The music of this little song was composed by Lot K. Kauwe, words by Dr. Goodhue. Class trained by Mr. Telcira.

Recitation, Summer Vacation, room IV. Composition, room III. Recitation, Goodby, room III. Talk to eighth grade by principal. The whole program demonstrated thorough, conscientious work on the part of the principal and her staff of teachers.

PLUNDER OF $150 COSTS BAKER ONE YEAR IN JAIL

WAILUKU, Maui, June 30.—For climbing through an open window in the First National bank of Wailuku, about 2 o'clock last Saturday morning, and getting away with $150 in cash and a counterfeit 50-cent piece, Manchu Baker, a young Porto Rican, was sentenced in the Wailuku district court to serve one year in jail. The would-be bank robber was discovered by Police Officer Joe Coelho, who called Cashier C. D. Lufkin, but the prowler made his escape before an entrance through the front of the bank could be effected. Later Coelho picked the man up on Market street, having recognized him while he was in the bank. The cash in the burglar proof vaults of the bank was probably in no danger whatever from the amateur cracksmen.

They are well cared for in their new homes. The majority of the boys are sold at prices varying from $20 to $60. The demand is so great that agents can do their work quickly and quietly, the surrounding community hardly realizing what is taking place.

DYNAMITE DESTROYS BARBER SHOP THAT DEFIED UNION

BUTTE, Mont.—A non-union barber shop was dynamited here recently, the rear of the building being blown out. The shop had been running about ten days. The building was practically demolished and adjoining property was damaged. No one was injured. The shop had begun a price-slashing campaign in an endeavor to break the union scale prevailing in this city.

The New York Senate finance committee reported favorably the state constabulary bill.
